Type of Temporary Food Vendor

A Temporary Food Vendor (TFV) is a person or persons, including a business entity, who operates one of the following. Please check which type of TFV your business will be:

- Intermittent Temporary Restaurant. An establishment that operates temporarily at a specific location in connection with multiple public gatherings, entertainment events, food product promotions or other events, at least two of which are arranged for by different oversight organizations; and where food is prepared or served for consumption by the public.
- Seasonal Temporary Restaurant. An establishment that operates at a specific location in connection with multiple public gatherings, entertainment events, food product promotions, or other events that are arranged for by the same oversight organization; and where food is prepared or served for consumption by the public.
- Single Event Temporary Restaurant. An establishment that operates in connection with a single public gathering, entertainment event, food product promotion, or other event; and where food is prepared or served for consumption by the public.
- Mobile Unit. Any vehicle on which food is prepared, processed, or converted or which is used in selling and dispensing food to the ultimate consumer.

Submittal Checklist

Registration Required. No person shall operate as a Temporary Food Vendor without first registering with the City of Warrenton. Registration shall be on forms provided by the City. All Temporary Food vendors shall be required to provide the following information:

- Official picture identification in the form of a valid state-issued driver's license, state-issued identification card, or valid passport.
- Current contact information, including a valid mailing address and phone number.
- A current Oregon State food handler's certification if handling food.
- The location of vending.
- If vending on private property, the street vendor must provide a copy of the affected property owner's written permission for the placement of a temporary shelter, stand, vehicle, or cart.
- Any other information deemed necessary to enforce this section.

This application will not be officially accepted until department staff have determined that the application is completely filled out, signed, the application fee has been paid, and the submittal requirements have been met.
