Department Overview: The City of Warrenton was founded in 1899. The WPD is responsible for policing services in Warrenton, Hammond, and Fort Stevens, with a total coverage area of 19.4 square miles. The department has a Chief, 2-Sergeants, 1-Detective, 8-Patrol Officers, Reserve Police Officer Program, 2-Clerks, and 1-Part-time Clerk. The WPD is a very Community-Oriented department that participates in numerous programs and events throughout the year.

City/County/Area Information: The City of Warrenton is located in the very Northwest corner of Oregon in Clatsop County at the mouth of the Columbia River. Warrenton is noted for having the Historic Ft. Stevens Military base and being by Fort Clatsop, the winter residence of the 1805-1806 Lewis & Clark Expedition.

Population: Warrenton has over 6,400 residents and a daily population of 10,000 to 15,000, depending on the season. Logging, fishing (both commercial and sport), tourism, and a large shopping corridor (Walmart, Costco, Fred Meyers, Home Depot, and many other businesses) along Hwy 101 provide the economic base for this scenic coastal community. Warrenton is located between the larger tourist towns of Astoria and Seaside.
